Sub:- Pre-Cyclone exercise for possible summer cyclone.

Madam/Sir,

In inviting a reference to the above subject, I am directed to say that the month of May is a threat so far as the summer cyclone is concerned. Like the previous years there is a need to review arrangements in this regard. Hence, the following are to be ensured relating to Department of W & CD.

1. To ensure care for children, women and the vulnerable section of the community.
2. Necessary steps to be taken to sensitize AWWs.
3. Necessary steps may be taken for deployment of one AWW in permanent/temporary cyclone/flood shelters for care of women & children. One female official (such as ASHA/AWW/Lady Teacher/Lady Constable/Home Guard etc. may be kept in charge of each shelter to coordinate with women & children.
4. To emphasize the shifting of pregnant women having expected date of delivery (EDD) within 10 days prior to cyclone hit the coast to nearest Government Hospital having safe delivery facility.
5. Adequate dry food, drinking water, ready to eat food may be arranged and kept in shelters for pregnant women and children. One female official (such as ASHA/AWW/Lady Teacher/Lady Constable/Home Guard etc.) may be kept in charge of each shelter to coordinate regarding activities related to women & children.

It is, therefore, requested to take appropriate steps in the matter and issue suitable instructions to all concerned to take all preparedness measures well in advance to reduce the impacts of the cyclone.

Yours faithfully

Special Secretary to Govt.
